We are required, by law, to pass certain information about staff to specified external bodies, such as our local authority and the Department for Education, so that they are able to meet their statutory obligations.

Any staff member wishing to see a copy of information about them that the school holds should contact the Headteacher or Data Protection Officer.

8. Subject access requests (Parental requests)

(Subject access request forms are available on the GDPR section of the school website)

Personal data about a child belongs to that child, and not the child parents. This is the case even where a child is too young to understand the implications of subject access rights.

Maintained Nursery Schools

The Information Commissioner's office, the organisation that upholds information rights, generally regard children aged 12 and above as mature enough to understand their rights and the implications of a subject access request. Therefore, most subject access requests from parents of pupils at Highfield Nursery School may be granted without the express permission of the pupil.

Under the Data Protection Act 1998, parents have a right to request access to information the schools holds about their child. This is known as a subject access request.

Subject access requests must be submitted in writing, either by letter, email or fax. Requests should include:

- The pupil's name
- A correspondence address
- A contact number and email address
- Details about the information requested

The school will not reveal the following information in response to subject access requests:

- Information that might cause serious harm to the physical or mental health of the pupil or another individual
- Information that would reveal that the child is at risk of abuse, where disclosure of that information would not be in the child's best interests
- Information contained in adoption and parental order records
- Certain information given to a court in proceedings concerning the child

Subject access requests for all or part of the pupil's educational record will be provided within 15 school days. The table below summarised the charges that apply.

Number of pages of information to be supplied	Maximum fee (£)
1-19	1.00
20-29	2.00
30-39	3.00
40-49	4.00

400-449	40.00
450-499	45.00
500+	50.00

If a subject access request does not relate to the educational record, we will respond within 40 calendar days. The maximum charge that will apply is £10.00.

9. Storage or records

Paper-based records and portable electronic devices, such as laptops and hard-drive, that contain personal information are kept secure when not in use.

Papers containing confidential information should not be left on office and classroom desk, on staffroom tables or pinned to noticeboards where there is general access.

Where personal information needs to be taken off site (in paper or electronic form), this will be carried out in accordance with the school's data mapping document.

Password that are at least 8 characters long containing letters and numbers are used to access school computers and laptops. All iPads are protected with a 4 digit code. Staff and pupils are reminded to change their passwords at regular intervals.

Staff follow policy which states that USB devices are not to be used.

10. Disposal of records

Personal information that is no longer needed or has become inaccurate or out of date, is disposed of securely.

For example, we will shred paper-based records and override electronic files. We may also use an outside company to safely dispose of paper records.

11. Training

Our staff and governors are provided with data protection training as part of their induction process.

Data protection will also form part of continuing professional development, where changes to legislation or the school's processes make it necessary.

12. The General Data Protection Regulation

We acknowledge that the law is changing on the rights of data subject and that the General Data Protection Regulation is due to come into force in May 2018.

We will review working practices when this new legislation takes effect and provide training to members and governors where appropriate.

13. Monitoring arrangements

The Headteacher, Data Protection Office and nominated governor representative are responsible for monitoring and reviewing this policy.

This document will be reviewed when the General Data Protection Regulation comes into force, and then every 2 years.

At every review, the policy will be shared with the full governing body.

14. Links with other policies

The data protection policy and privacy notice is linked to the freedom of information publication scheme.

15. Complaints

Complaint will be dealt with in accordance with the school's complaints policy. Complaints relating to the handling of personal information may be referred to the Information Commissioner who can be contacted at Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF or at www.ico.gov.uk

16. Contacts

If you have any enquiries in relation to this policy, please contact Mrs Susan Conron (Headteacher) or Mrs Joanna Murphy (School Business Manager/Data Protection Officer).
